

Catching My Breath

The Life and Races of Athlete Ken Thomas

— PHOTO CAPTIONS —

1 of 2

CMB 01 — Ken, age 5, using walker with brother Brian's help

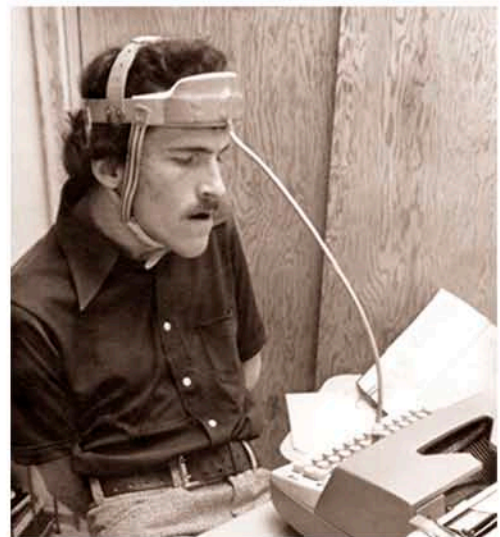

CMB 02 — Ken, age 8, and friend

CMB 03 — Ken's parents, Sheila and Alan Thomas

CMB 04 — Ken, 2nd child from left, with Calgary's Cerebral Palsy bus in the 1960s

CMB 05 — Ken wears head pointer to type during high school in the 1970s

CMB 06 — Ken's extended family

CMB 07 — Producer/Director Lorna Thomas poses with brother Ken, 2008

Catching My Breath

The Life and Races of Athlete Ken Thomas

— PHOTO CAPTIONS —

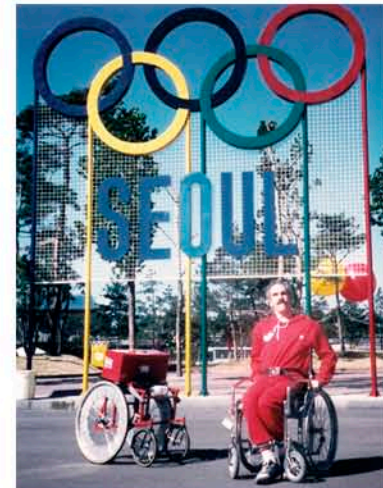

2 of 2

CMB 08 — Ken at World Masters Games in 2005 with runner Sandy Jacobson

CMB 09 — Ken wins as a team member of the Canadian CP Sports Association

CMB 10 — Ken at Paralympics in Seoul, Korea in 1988

CMB 11 — Ken competes in Denmark in 1982, his first overseas competition

CMB 12 — Ken at end of World Masters Games 10k road race

CMB 13 — Ken at start of World Masters Games 10k road race, with videographer

CMB 14 — Isolated shot of Ken in his wheelchair